Special note to parents: parts of this drama are loud and intense and would be quite alarming to small children. Childcare is provided for this event for children thru age 5.

Mount Hermon Mission Offering 2012

Has risen to $5,947.00

Goal - $10,500.00

Through the MHMO we help create new churches in Virginia through the Alma Hunt Mission Offering's New Church Investment Grants. Such grants assist in launching new church starts, multi-site churches, emerging churches, new worshipping communities, house churches, and international faith communities by making it possible for them to purchase land, construct buildings, or pay rent, buy A/V and sound equipment, or advertise their new church.

If you know someone in our MHBC family who is graduating from high school or earning a degree from a university or school of higher education this spring, please send that info to Susan Prather at prathermhbc@aol.com

From the Pastor

Sunday Night's Drama

Moseley may be about as far off Broadway as you can get, but some great guys have put a lot of preparation into The Demonic! Ron Hatcher, Brandon Garrett, Randy Jordan, Phillip Ranallo, Bob Lanier, Scott Szczesniak, Chris Edwards, Bruce Boyajian, O.J. Johnson, and myself. It's been fun getting ready, and we certainly hope it will culminate in a meaningful message for all.

The Demonic! seeks to make the people and events of Mark 5:1-20 come alive. I think you will appreciate the way it portrays the power and compassion of Jesus as he deals with a troubled, tormented human being. – As noted, parts of the play are loud! Small children would be quite alarmed, so this is something we want parents to know.

Make it a great night by bringing friends, family, and neighbors with you.

Blessings to you,

Lee
