Quotes for Today

As I grow to understand life less and less, I learn to love it more and more. - Jules Renard

Happy are those who dream dreams and are ready to pay the price to make them come true. - Leon J. Suenes

From the Pastor

Hearing God

Last Sunday, we talked about how easy it is to talk to God, but not so easy to hear God. And we began with the question: Do we really want to hear God anyway? If we don't... He can't really get through to us with any clarity or purpose. God can broadcast 24/7, but we won't know what He is saying if we don't have our radios tuned to His station.

Yes, we all benefit from God's general revelation and the things He wants us all to know, but what does God want me to know and do personally? How do I know when it's Him speaking and not just my own thoughts? Do I have to hear an audible voice? What other means of "speaking" does God use? – Tough questions for us to ask and answer.

For the next two Sundays, we'll take a closer look at how we can hear God. And if there has ever been an instance when you knew that God was speaking some specific revelation to you, please tell me about it. I'd love to benefit from your experience. Send me an email, give me a call, or tell me in person. Surely God will deal with us in various ways, for we are all very different personalities. But speak He will! He is that kind of God.

Sept. 11 – Do You Even Want to Hear God?

Sept. 18 – How Does God Communicate Personally?

Sept. 25 – Get Familiar With God's Voice

Yours in Him,

Lee
